

Prayer for Canada

(Prayer service to prepare for Canada's 150th birthday. Suitable for Canada Day celebrations)

INTRODUCTION

Good morning/afternoon. Welcome to our prayer for Canada as it approaches its 150th birthday. Please join in our opening song, _____.

OPENING PRAYER

Let us begin our prayer with the sign of our faith: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And let us pray. O God, you created the earth to be our dwelling as we journey toward our heavenly home. We praise you for the riches of this land that feeds and sustains us. We thank you for the kindness of those who welcomed the newcomers who settled here. We thank you for the faith of those who worked to build a just society that honours you. We ask you to send your Spirit upon our gathering this morning. Open our hearts with gratitude for your blessings; with repentance for our failures; and grant us an unshakeable hope, to build a future that glorifies you in all things. We ask you this through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord. Amen.

And now, let us listen to God's word.

READING

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah (Is 42: 5-9)

Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and who stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. I am the Lord, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols.

The word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

REFLECTION

This land known as Canada has always been a sacred place. Our country's indigenous peoples know that it is a gift from the Creator. It provides us with food, medicine, and what we need for shelter. Who else but God could create waters teeming with fish; forests, plains and tundra with plentiful wildlife; mighty rivers and awe-inspiring mountains? We see the beauty of this land, and something deep in our hearts understands that it is God's gift to us.

Canada is not just about land. It is also about people – people who live together and share common ways of life. Our reading from the prophet Isaiah tells us that it is God who created this land, who gives us our breath, and gives us His spirit to walk in His righteousness. God calls us to be His witnesses: to worship Him in love, to reach out to those in need, to share our food with the hungry, to visit the sick and imprisoned, to welcome the stranger, to work for peace and clothe the naked. As God's witnesses, we are called to honour our elders, our parents, and all those who teach us to walk in God's righteousness.

In God's eyes, our greatness as a nation comes from living as His witnesses. Jesus gives us the strength to live this way – to become all that God calls us to be. He calls us from many cultures and nationalities. He inspires and raises up Godly people to shine with His light in our families, in our communities, in the Church and in our schools – to lead us by example.

The light of Jesus shines in our witness. It makes us a light for one another, and a light to the nations. The light of Jesus, shining in our witness opens the eyes of those who are blinded by injustice; it shines on those who sit in the darkness without hope, on those hungering for a home, for friendship, for safety, for food, for love. As we prepare to celebrate 150 years of Canadian nationhood, let us give thanks to God for this great land. Let us give God thanks for the people who first welcomed our ancestors and families. Let us give God thanks for the faith-filled people in our lives who shine with Christ's life. Let us give thanks for the Godly women and men in our history who worked to build a just and free society for all who call Canada home. Let us invite Jesus into our hearts to shine in us, that we might continue building what God began in their hearts and lives.

LITANY OF CANADIAN SAINTS AND BLESSEDS

As Christians, we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. These are people who went before us, leading others by their holy example in building a more just society, and making the world a more Godly place. They are the parents, grandparents, elders, aunts, uncles, coaches, teachers, priests, religious and friends who watch and pray for us from heaven. The saints and blessed of Canada are part of this cloud of witnesses. Let us turn to them, asking for their prayers, that we too might live as God's witnesses in Christ.
